On December 16, 2019 at 2:00 PM, Monterey Police Officers were requested to assist with a standby at a residence in the 900 block of West Franklin Street. The reporting party had obtained a domestic violence restraining order and move out order for Edward Bossard Jr., 37 years old. The reporting party was concerned for their safety and requested police standby to ensure Bossard had vacated the residence.

Responding officers were familiar with Bossard and knew he had a prior criminal history including arrests for theft, battery, burglary, possession of stolen property, auto theft, narcotics violations, vehicle pursuits with police, criminal threats, being a felon in passion of ammo, and being a felon in possession of firearms.

Upon arriving at the residence, it appeared the doors of the home had been barricaded closed to prevent access. The reporting party requested police assist in gaining access to the residence. Upon doing so, Bossard and a female, later identified as Angelina Perez 18 years old of Monterey, attempted to exit the back door and were contacted by officers. Bossard and Perez refused to comply with police commands and returned inside the residence where they barricaded a bedroom door shut with furniture.
Officers attempted to negotiate with Bossard and Perez to surrender over a period of almost five hours. Bossard and Perez would not speak with officers but could be heard moving about inside.

A K9 and officers from the Salinas Police Department responded to assist in searching the house as it was believed Bossard was attempting to conceal himself and there could have been hazards inside the residence based on Bossards barricades.

At 6:27 PM officers forced the last bedroom door and located Bossard and Perez. Bossard and Perez then surrendered without further incident and were unharmed. Bossard complained of a medical ailment unrelated to officers’ actions and given aid at the scene by the Monterey Fire Department and American Medical Response. Perez and Bossard were then booked into the Monterey Police Department Jail for the following charges:

Edward Bossard 148 PC – obstructing a peace officer; and a no bail misdemeanor arrest warrant for violation of a court order.

Angelina Perez 148 PC – obstructing a peace officer.
Angelina Perez
